GIVE CHILDREN PLAYGROUNDS!

Is Demand of Parents; Entire City Favors Immediaie Action

Richmond is united for playgrounds.

Members of the city council state that they favor such places of recreation. Local organizations and merchants favor them. Parents demand them. Under these circumstances, the time appears ripe for action.

The Daily News has made inquiries and has found not one dissenting voice against the purchase of land for playgrounds and the installation of playground paraphernalia.

Richmond is the only city in the bay district without playgrounds. There is no logical reason hy Richmond should not have playgrounds. There are plenty of children who would be only too glad to have some place to go for recreation.

They not only want playgrounds, but SHOULD HAVE THEM. In Oakland and San Francisco playgrounds are scattered throughout the city. It has been shown through exhaustive statistics that the crime in these cities has been minimized.

Playgrounds make robust, healthy children. They not only stimulate the flow of blood, but they stimulate the mind. A healthy boy or girl, according to school heads, is an ideal student.

Playgrounds keep the children in a place where they are out of danger, not only from accident, but from the vicissitudes leading to pitfalls in society.

There are scores of reasons why Richmond should have playgrounds. There is not one reason why Richmond should not have playgrounds.

As was said editorially in the Daily News, "The financial investment will receive the greatest interest—healthy children on the right path."

Any good physician will recommend outdoor play. Give the children of Richmond an opportunity to get that outdoor play.

The city council can do no greater good to the city than to take up this matter of playgrounds NOW.

Let other matters rest. Go forward with something that is of real value. The future of the children should be considered more highly than mere dollars and cents. The children are entitled to what can be given them.

Give them this chance and give it to them NOW.

(Special to the NEWS.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Mayor Rolph, Superintendent Cashin and members of the Board of Works will have to stand trial on charges of contempt growing out of the continued operation of the "C" and "D" cars of the Municipal Railroad on Market street. Superior Judge Crothers today denied a motion for a dismissal of the contempt proceeding, and set Monday for the hearing of the case, when it will be decided whether or not the city officials will have to undergo a taste of jail life or pay a fine for their alleged contempt of court.

When Judge Crothers rendered his preliminary decision this afternoon at 3:45, Attorney W. M. Cannon, for the United Railroads, insisted that the contempt matter be taken up at once.

RICHMOND IS LAUDED FOR SANITARY SYSTEM

"Richmond has an ideal sanitary inspection."

"The inspection of milk in Richmond is more complete than in any other city I have ever seen."

"Richmond is certainly fortunate in being protected by this thorough sanitary inspection."

(Excerpts from the interview with N. Schultz.)

N. Schultz, a wealthy dairy owner of San Jose, was in Richmond yesterday investigating the possibilities of establishing a large dairy service in this city. Schultz visited the department of City Health Inspector Charles R. Blake and also conducted an individual investigation of conditions about the city. He declared that sanitary conditions here were ideal. He also intimated that it was probable that he would soon establish a large dairy here.

"Your system of inspecting milk here is ideal," said Schultz in an interview. "It surpasses any city I have ever seen. I am not surprised that Richmond is so lacking in diseases originating from impure milk."

The method of placing a report of the condition of milk in all of the local restaurants, introduced a year ago by Dr. Blake, was commended by Schultz.

"It is certainly an excellent idea," said Schultz.

Schultz left for San Jose last night.

INCREASE FORCE ON ROAD WORK

With the addition of over a score of men yesterday morning, the working force on the construction of Cutting boulevard was yesterday increased to nearly a hundred. The grading of the street in preparation for the laying of the cement base is proceeding rapidly and the forms are being set for the gutters, curbs and sidewalks.

Eaton and Smith, to whom the sewer laying was subletted by the Municipal Improvement company, have completed their job between First and Tenth streets, having dug a trench in parking space on either side of the street at a depth of from ten to fifteen feet. The sewer pipes have been laid and covered. This morning the big catepillar ditch digger will start on the remainder of the job between Ashland and First street, starting at the Ashland end of the job.

Superintendent R. R. Ditzel of the M. I. company stated last night that the boulevard would be completed by November 1.

It is the intention of the West Side Commercial Club to combine the celebration of the opening of the new municipal tunnel and the completion ofo Cutting boulevard. The celebration will be made an elaborate affair, as all of the progressive west siders are confident that the opening of these two big projects will be the impetus for a big boom for the west side.

Temperli, Milton and Adams all served as presidents of the student body of the high school. Like leaders of high students, so do they hope to become leaders at raising potatoes, radishes and other farm products, and as all five are enthusiastic young men it is probable that their ambitions will materialize.

It Was Friday the Thirteenth But No 'Gloom'

Came Into Home of C. Soldacini

Friday, the "thirteenth," did not bring any gloom into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Soldacini of Stege. It brought a whole bundle of joy in the shape of a baby daughter. Mrs. Soldacini is the daughter of Musical N. Moro a prominent plumbing contractor of Stege.

Professor Bliss has been invited by the local Machinists' organization to be present at the next meeting of the union and explain the course to the members. The university officials have signified their willingness to establish classes in the headquarters of the union for the convenience of the members.

ALMOST CERTAIN REPORT

Indications at Martinez Point to This Figure

MARTINEZ, Aug. 13.—That the county tax rate will be $1.80 outside on the $100 is now practically decided. Such was the statement made by a number of the county officials today, who are interested in the matter and who have been figuring on the amount which will be needed to conduct the county for the next year.

This amount will include the 25 cent special road tax. In view of the two million dollar increase in the assessment roll, the entire 25 cents will not be added to last year's figure of $1.60, as was anticipated some time ago.

The board will fix the rate the first of September. It is expected that the inside will be about 40 cents lower.

A second Crockett man will be tried for a similar offense in a few days. The Rev. D. W. Calfee, humane officer, was present at the trial.

HONOR CIVIL WAR VETERAN.

The Grand Army Encampment will hold many honors for the Civil War veterans, but apart from the Grand Review to be held at Washington, D. C., September 27-October 2—an historic echo of that other review of fifty years ago—it is doubtful if any plan will exceed in emotional value a visit to the National Museum's exhibit of flags, weapons, uniforms and other relics of the great war.

For every veteran who marches along historic Pennsylvania avenue, a link in the chain which connects his twilight years with the immortal army of his youth, there will be same predominating memory of war days to keep step with him to the call of fife and drum.

And over in the National Museum the big moment of his life may again vision itself in memory, that, sparklike, will flash out its glimpse of a long ago soldier boy who was daring enough to follow wherever a flag led the way. From Sumter to Appoomattox the museum sketches the war by means of many records, the most unusual of which is a bullet-riddled stump, which tells the story of Spottsylvania Court House.

To the old soldier who had his share in that battle, the stump means something more than so much dead wood. He sees it a giant oak, spreading its centuries of leafy shade over those Confederate intrenchments. But he can see it, right now, that poor old tree, cut down by enemy musket balls during an attempt to recapture the works. The battered chunk has bridged the gulf of a half century.

Ulysses S. Grant will live in their memories until the last pulse beat of the last boy in blue, and the belongings of the commanding general of the army will be of special interest to every soldier who fought under him in the Civil War.

Shoulder straps, buttons, hat ornaments and epaulets, grouped in the order in which they were earned, serve as so many stepping stones to the heights of military glory to which the hero attained, and there is a war-grimed uniform which looks as if it had gone through more than enough to earn the "gold-fringed epaulets of the general of the army," which blaze in a gorgeous heap near by. The Grant collection is large enough to fill four great cases, and so varied in character as to represent almost every quarter of the globe. The smallest exhibit is a jade cup, the size and color of a wild duck's egg, and not much thicker than its shell. It was a gift from the regent of China at the time of General Grant's visit to the Orient. The largest specimen is a magnificent buffet, composed of cloud-tinted onyx, veined with a dozen colors, and mounted in dull, carved brass. The citizens of Pueblo, Mexico, took this method of expressing "their appreciation of their warrior guest."

Though the equestrian statue of Grant will not be completed in time for the Encampment, a bronze Sherman on a bronze steed will figure in the coming review. The museum also recalls the valiant Sherman with his service sword used at Shiloh, and a breastpin made of buttons from the uniform worn by him on his march to the sea.

There are war flags that carry a thrill in each frayed stripe and tarnished star. From the garrison standard, lowered at Fort Moultrie in 1860, when Major Anderson and his command evacuated that post to occupy Fort Sumter, to the flag raised at Richmond in 1865, each powder-marked, bullet-torn emblem represents a chapter of natiinal history written in indelible red, white and blue.

And there is another flag! It is such a long flag that its length stretches the course of several cases. Its four stripes are each a yard wide and its nine stars are larger than any starfish that ever came out of the sea. From end to end it is incased in a honeycomb mesh of twine, a precaution taken to preserve its glory for the coming ages, for this is the garrison flag that so proudly waved over Fort McHenry during the bombardment of the British in 1814, and which inspired Francis Scott Key to write the "Star Spangled Banner." The flag was placed in the museum by a relative of Colonel George Armistead, commander of the fort, who with his men won victory for the standard in "the dawn's early light."

The Grand Army veteran will live forever in song and story, but the weapon with which he fought his way to immortality is sunk today. Carbine, musket and rifle have given way to machine guns, and the clash of sabers, man to man, has been replaced by long distance shells. Of the firearms that fill countless racks and cases in the museum, the veteral will find duplicates, lock, stock and barrel, of every weapon he carried in the Civil War.

MIGHTY GOOD RESOLUTION.

Stay in Richmond Sundays!

That's a mighty good little resolution for every Richmond resident to adopt. For those who prefer theatrical performances, Richmond has three show houses giving shows of only a high class order. Richmond churches are second to none in the state. The speakers are all men of experience and their talks are interesting and educational. There is no reason why anyone should leave Richmond on any holiday. Compare your out-of-town experiences with what Richmond has to present and be satisfied that "there is no place like home."

PREPARING FOR ELECTION IN OCTOBER

MARTINEZ, Aug. 13.—Preparations for the special election to be held on October 26 were commenced today by County Clerk Jasper H. Wells. There will be seventy precincts in the county, which was the number used at the election last November.

The new law prescribes that six election officers must be appointed for all precincts having 100 or more voters and that four shall be selected for all with less than that number of voters. This will mean that in about a half dozen precincts the number will be cut down.

There will be no new register for this election, supplements being added to carry the names of the persons, who have moved to other precincts. The registers used in 1914 will hold sway.

The coming year, according to Wells, will see an increase in the election precincts and beginning with January 1, 1916, everyone will be forced to register again.

There are to be nine amendments to the constitution and one referendum matter voted upon in October. The ballots will not be long and it should take but a few moments for one to cast the ballot.

BORNE TO GRAVE BY SIX NURSES

The funeral of Miss Emma Guth, daughter of Fred Guth, an employe of the Standard Oil company, was held yesterday afternoon from the Smallwood Undertaking Parlors. Interment was made in Sunset View cemetery. The funeral was an especially pathetic one. Six nurses from the Roosevelt hospital, where the young woman was a student nurse, acted as pall bearers. The chapel of the undertaking parlors was crowded with the many young friends of the popular girl. Besides her father, the girl is survived by a sister.

SALE WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

A sale of considerable importance to purchasers of bargains will be held next week by Mrs. A. G. Weeks. An attractive and excellent stock is certain to attract a large number to the sale.

CARRY GOLD.

(Special to the NEWS.)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13.—State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson stood on guard with a big revolver today while his assistants carried in and counted $1,000,000 in gold, part of the corporation franchise paid to the state by the Southern Pacific.

The remainder, $500,000, will be paid in when the treasurer calls for it.

The Southern Pacific pays the biggest corporation tax in the state, based upon its valuation with allied roads of more than $100,000,000.

The Loyal Order of Moose met at Moose hall Wednesday evening and completed arrangements for a monster celebration to be held at the local ball park next Sunday. ATTRACTIONS ON WAY TO RICHMOND

Some splendid attractions have been secured by Manager Hunter for the coming days at the Richmond theater. They follow:

August 13-4—"After Dark."
Aug. 16-17—"Shooting of Dan McGrew."
Aug. 18-19—"Kilmeny."
August 20-21—Mary Pickford in "Little Pal."
August 23-24—"Cora."
August 25-26—"The Clue."
Aug. 27-28—"The Dictator."
Aug. 30-31—"The Middleman."
September 1-2—"The Rug-Maker's Daughter."
Sept. 3-4—"The Arab."
Sept. 6-7—"Marrying Money."
Sept. 8-9—"Fighting Hope."
Sept. 10-11—"Chimmie Fadden."
Sept. 15-16—"Seven Sisters."

What is absolutely the greatest comedy juggling act ever brought to Richmond is to be seen in tomorrow's vaudeville show at the Richmond theater. It is Nolan & Nolan, who have just left the Pantages circuit to start on a 30 weeks' tour of Australia. The performance put on by these two acrobats beats anything else of its kind on the stage today. They were secured for a day here only because they had a two-day lay over while waiting for their trip to the Antipodes.

Another act will be Capt. Lawrence and Marie Lawrence in the great European war act, introducing trumpet calls, salutes, etc. Kimball Brothers, 'rthe two messenger boys," present an act which is a scream from start to finish. Miss Anna Schofield, violiniste, will give an exhibition of fine art in violin playing.

KING BAGGOT AT LYRIC TONIGHT

King Baggot, the famous film here, will appear tonight at the Lyric theater in Alexander Duma's great novel, "Corsican Brothers." The novel was put into the film by George A. Lessey. The picture vividly portrays many thrilling and dramatic scenes. Baggot is shown in a dual role. A galaxy of other famous stars also appear.

THE LEADING SHOW IN RICHMOND TOWN

Let me tell you, people of Richmond,
Thru the columns of The News,
The latest kind of remedy
For chasing away the blues.
It is the Richmond Theatre,
Richmond's leading show.

There isn't much need of telling,
For most the people know
It has the best of motion pictures,
The best vaudeville Sundays, too.
And there's a little secret that
I'm going to tell to you.

I was looking at the program,
And just think—for Sunday's bill
They are going to have a dandy show,
That will sure beat Kolb and Dill.

They have the nicest manager,
The ushers are just grand;
And the orchestra is dandy,
It just beats most any band.

And say! they have a program
That will surely send a thrill
Through the throngs that each night gather
Their favorite show to fill.

So you just take a tip from me
And to that theatre go,
Then you'll be a steady patron
Of Richmond's leading show.

A great many men have in a year or two saved quite a lot of money. We know of men who two years ago on a pay night opened an account and pay day after pay day they have added to it until now they have a substantial balance. You can do the same thing by opening an account this pay day and by depositing every pay day you will be able to make quite a good investment in a year. Also remember that your money is drawing 4 per cent interest all the time it is in the bank.

IEMA GOES AFTER WHIP SO SERIES IS DELAYED

The Daily News sport ed., in behalf of Iema Knutt, desires to apologize for the fact that Mr. Knutt's first article, scheduled to appear today, has been delayed. Iema set sail with a gang of local lads yesterday afternoon to give the country the up and down. During the tour Iema was lured into an ice cream parlor, and after killing off a couple of rounds of Sundays and Mondays, he lost consciousness. It sure was tough on the old boy.

With the proper kind of attention, the attending physicians say that the old boy will be back on the job this afternoon, in which event his first article will appear tomorrow. When seen in his suite last night Iema muttered "Make mine the same." It is thought that this remark will have some bearing on the mystery of Iema's sudden departure from consciousness.

Tomorrow Denny J. Healey's infamous gang of second-story men will hook up with Joe Thomas' Apple Pickers. The contest will be played in the city hall square at Sebastopol. Both clubs have grabbed a win and this will decide the series. Some irresponsible scribes of the up county wilds are filling considerable valuable space informing the public that Richmond is simply out of the running with Sebastopol and Petaluma. As long as old man Healey carries a certain jump by the name of Hayes we'll believe this story as far as Petaluma is concerned. But Sebastopol! Oh, Heavens, Myrtle. Joe's Apple Kids couldn't clean Richmond in a hundred years.

• • •

Richmond will hook up with Denny's gang on the 29th of this month and the Sebastopol lads on the 22nd. The Sebastopol match will be played at Sebastopol. Petaluma will play here. We hope the police department will come out strong to the latter named match.

• • •

Dough Knutt, a brother of Iema Knutt, has been heard from in Petaluma. He wires that he will cover the situation for the Daily News in that burg. Dough will start his articles in a couple of days.

Phillip Angel, Terrel Stokes and Thomas Poag spending a few days at Bolinas bay, on a fishing trip.

J. A. Demmond, C. H. Johnston, B. Johnston, L. E. Heaster and F. Rice have left on a fishing trip to Humboldt county.

NOTICE.

5,000 EXPECTED AT EVENT AT LUCE PARK TOMORROW; IT WILL BE GREAT DAY'S TIME

Five thousand ladies and gentlemen will assemble at the First street park tomorrow afternoon.

Of this motley array some will be Elks, some will be Moose, some will be Woodmen and some will be something else. But they'll all be there.

While some of our readers may scoff at the remark that 5000 will be present we have received this information direct from the headquarters of the Moose, so it must be reliable.

There will be a number of Moose from San Francisco and Oakland and Elks and Woodmen from the same burgs will also be present.

There will be a parade. The Richmond Concert Band will play. A visiting drum corps will drum and the Richmond Moose and Richmond Woodmen will engage in a competitive drill. The parade will begin at 1:30 from the Elks building at Tenth street and Macdonald avenue. The drill will begin at 2 o'clock.

At 2:30 o'clock the RICHMOND ELKS AND THE SAN FRANCISCO MOOSE CLUBS WILL PARTICIPATE IN A BASEBALL CONTEST.

Kindly believe us, gentle reader, when he say that this is going to be a hot contest. The Elks will work their hardest to clean up the San Franciscans, and the San Franciscans will work their hardest to clean up the Richmonders. In other words, the fans are going to have an enjoyable afternoon.

Charlie Burns will officiate on the mound for the Elks. Charles has just returned from a pursuit of the elusive trout or whale, we don't know which, and is in sweet form to bring home the bacon.

San Francisco will be represented by a strong aggregation.

The teams will line up as follows:

—ENTERTAINS AT PARTY—

Mrs. E. Tracks, 125 South Eleventh street, entertained at a party on Thursday evening. Those present were: A. Meyers and Miss Meyers; Elmhurst; Miss Mildred Engelke, George Prowse, Stockton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferro.

"Hello! What's the latest?" Don't know, I haven't read the Daily News today."

NEW FEATURE CREDIT TO RICHMOND.

The new millinery department of Jones & Adkison will be as up-to-date as any in the bay district. It will open on or about Aug. 15.
